Dedication

Richard L. Helm

The Class of 1964 is proud to dedicate this WECOMI to Mr. Richard Helm. As a science teacher and coach, Mr. Helm has gained the respect and admiration of all who have been privileged to know him. He has advised us as a teacher and friend, and by his patience, kindness, and teaching skill, has provided an example for us. We recognize the unselfish giving of his time by this dedication and would like to take this opportunity to wish him the best of luck as he takes on new responsibilities as athletic director of Wheaton North.

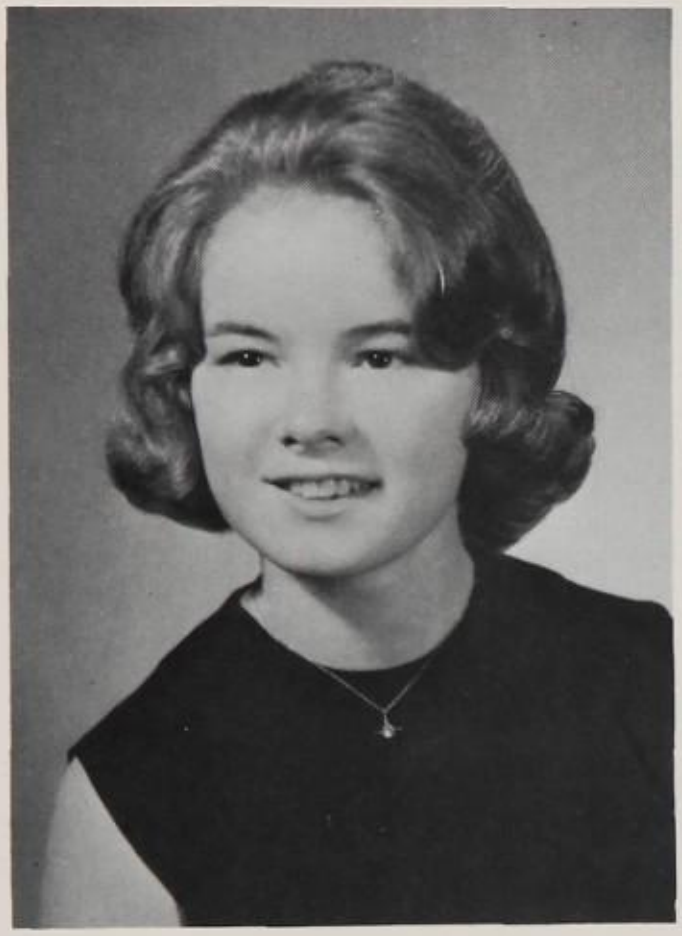
Senior Class Adopts A Greek Child

This year the Class of 1964 through the Senior Council adopted a Greek child by means of the Foster Parents' Plan, and in doing so, continued to uphold the tradition set by previous classes.

The child, thirteen year old Stamata Perrganti, lives with her family in Greece, and her mother does laundry in an attempt to support the family. With the help given by our senior class, Stamata is now assured of food and clothing which is supplied to her each month. She shows her appreciation by sending us letters.

We have enjoyed our contact with Stamata and hope that this tradition can be perpetuated.

In Memoriam



We were all deeply grieved at the death of two students who would have been members of this year's graduating class had they lived. Even to those who were not acquainted with them, the deaths of Cindy Rodgers and Phil Heath were personal tragedies for they were "one of us."

In Appreciation

The Senior Class of Wheaton Community High School would like to express its deep gratitude and appreciation to Senior Guidance Counselors, Miss Helen Hansen and Mr. James Pettigrew. They have always been willing and able to assist us with not only our present high school problems but also plans for the future. Our class will not soon forget the way in which the door was always open to us for friendly conversation and the understanding and encouragement they have given us.

Students buy school supplies at the Conference - sponsored bookstore.

Student Conference is the governing body of Wheaton Community High School. Its membership is composed of four representatives elected from each class, and the four class presidents, the four Conference officers, and honorary members, as the head cheerleader, exchange students, Student Court Judge, editor of Tiger Times, editor of WECOMI, and former officers of Conference. Miss Brechtel, Mr. Schaffnit, and Mr. Gates were the faculty sponsors.

The main source of revenue was the sale of activity tickets to the student body; this money was in turn distributed by Conference to the various clubs and organizations. This year for the first time, the Conference-sponsored bookstore, under the management of Jody Krulish, showed a profit.

Regulates Activities

Alert Student Conference officers George Dyke, treasurer, Mary Williamson, vice president, Beth Lower, secretary, and Jim Courtice, president, conduct a Conference meeting.

Some of the "causes" receiving financial remuneration were the interstate exchange program, school dances (such as the Christmas Dance), and, most important, the sponsoring of American Field Service exchange students both to and from our school.

To promote better relations between the faculty, class councils, and Conference, two teas were held this year, one in the fall and one in the spring. There was also a Conference-council dinner-workshop in September to acquaint the representatives with new ideas in student government. In February an inaugural dinner was given to honor the new, as well as the old, Conference officers.

An innovation this year was the division of the office of Student Conference Secretary into that of recording secretary and corresponding secretary; this change was adopted because the duties had become too great for one individual. A new constitution was also formulated this year.

The Chargers

At the beginning of the second semester, elections of new Student Conference officers were held. Posters adorned the corridors; bands played in the student center, and campaign meetings were held nightly so that members of the student body could meet the candidates.

The Seven Keys party, offering "the seven keys to good government," was managed by Tom Brydon and advised by faculty sponsor Mr. Gay. The party platform proposed ideas for better student participation in school activities, especially student government.

The Chargers, "leading the charge toward better student government," were managed by seniors Dave Knabb and Randy Koch and faculty advisors Mr. Payne and Mr. Pettigrew. The candidates advocated updating and revitalizing our student government.

On February 4, when the ballots had been counted, election judges Mary Liz Williamson, Nancy Wilhoit, and Steve Kerr announced the results; Jim Whitmer became our new Student Conference president. The officers chosen to work with him were Bob Seal, Mary Fellowes, Anne Woodward, John Showalter, Steve McMillan (Tom Renwick serves as assistant judge), and Meredith Poe.

Student Court

Assistant Judge Tom Brydon, Advisor Mr. Corbin, Judge Lew Sutton, and Recorder Timi Oury.

Student Court is the branch of the Student Conference which carries out the rules and regulations. If a student is running in the halls, cutting in lunch lines, going the wrong way in a one-way hall, or touring the building without a pass and a monitor apprehends him, he is brought before the Student Court for a trial.

Here all the usual courtroom procedures are carried on, and a student may, if he feels that the charge brought against him is unfair, have the monitor who accused him come to Court. All decisions made by the Judge are final.

Tom Brydon swears in an offender.

Monitors

At various places throughout the school building are stationed monitors, students whose job it is to keep the halls clear during class periods. These monitors keep a wary eye out for any student walking in the halls, and when one is spotted, the classic cry of the monitors, "Do you have a pass?" can be heard. If the victim cannot talk his way clear, the monitor is duty- bound to give him a "ticket," which entitles him to a visit to the Student Court where he will receive his due punishment.

Girls' State

This year Kris Selke was our representative to Girls' State. She was among several candidates chosen last spring by the school's Honor Committee to be interviewed by the local American Legion Auxiliary which annually sponsors a Wheaton delegate to the convention. Kris was selected for this distinction, and she met with 500 other girls from the state at MacMurray College, Jacksonville, Illinois, in June of 1963. During the week of meetings, these girls, chosen on the basis of leadership, character, and scholarship, listened to lectures on government. After several days of campaigning, they elected their own local and state officials.

A convention for those interested in government, Boys' State is sponsored by the American Legion. This year's representatives from Wheaton, chosen by the local Legion chapter, were Terry Ranahan, Jeff Moore, Pete Henning, Jay Varley, George Neill, Bob Reinert, Steve Kerr, Ken Parent, and Dick Willis.

These delegates left for the state capital and the week of meetings on June 23. Each of the 1200 participating boys was assigned a city, county, and political party, and a system of government parallel to that of the state of Illinois was established. All delegates had an opportunity to run for an office, and they attended classes to prepare themselves for the duties they would assume if elected. The elections were then held at the end of the week.

A.F.S. Exchange

Hi!

Most people when they hear me talk using various American terms, say, "You are learning fast." I certainly am; for that matter, it is learning that I am here for.

To measure the magnitude of how much I have learned here is beyond my scope; it is too much. Meeting people of another culture in another land with an entirely different background of beliefs is an experience. To learn about their way of thinking by first-hand knowledge is something that I could never have achieved if I had stayed at home.

To whom does the credit of my being here go? Of course, to the students of W.C.H.S., whose interest and initiative brought me over. I would like to take the opportunity here of thanking the student body for co-operation with the American Field Service.

Talking about co-operation, I must say that my classmates and teachers have taken extra pains to help me out of difficult situations, which I often got into in the beginning. It is their co-operation for which I am grateful because if I were not told, I wouldn't know which direction I was facing when in school.

Looking back on my first days here, I remember my choir class. I must say it was a mess for me for two reasons; in the first place, I was not used to reading music the way it is written here and to learn meant to start with the "ABC's," and so I did. It was not very much later when we started a Latin number, and this was the second difficulty I faced. My problem was trying to read two things at the same time when one was as much "Greek" as the other. I could sing either the right word or the right note but never both.

This is the way a year of wonderful experiences started for me--a year in which I was to learn more of not only other people but also of my own land and its culture, more than I had ever learned at home. Now I see the end fast approaching, and I shall soon have to bid farewell to the many friends I have made here. I shall leave people who accepted my love and reciprocated it, maybe forever. Memories of the people here are engraved on my mind, and we will part with a hope to meet again when we will flip back the pages of memories of the past. "So long."

Dinesh Bhargava

The secretary of Peruvian A.F.S., Pam Gleason, Papa Aillon, Mama Aillon, Charo Aillon, eighteen years old.

Jeff Chavez, 15, Lucy Chavez, 16, and Pancho Chavez, 9.

Students

In the spring of 1963 Pam Gleason was chosen to represent our school in a foreign country as a member of the American Field Service student exchange program. She left shortly after completion of her junior year for Lima, Peru, where she spent the next three months as the "daughter" of two Peruvian families. Pam's first home was with the Guillermo Aillon family. The second half of her stay in South America was passed with the family of Dr. Pompeijo Chavez.

The first experience which accentuated the differences between the two cultures was with the Peruvian food she was served. Finding a chicken foot in soup and snails in "sweet rolls" were only two of the rather startling discoveries Pam made in relation to foreign culinary practices.

Although Pam was on her summer vacation from school in Wheaton, she went to school in Peru. By attending one private high school and two universities, one coeducational and one private, she was able to observe first-hand the differences between the teaching methods of Peru and America.

When Pam returned to school here in the fall, she had many interesting and exciting "adventures" to relate of a worthwhile experience she will always remember.

1963 Tiger

After many hours of intense labor by the Class of 1965, THIS---the first-place float---resulted!

The Sophomore's third-place float.

Tiger Turnout was held this year on October 10, 11, and 12. Seniors Jane Vincent and George Neill co-ordinated all the activities of the weekend and were assisted by chairmen from each class. "The Four Points of the Compass" was chosen as the theme and was incorporated in the floats, halftime ceremonies of the football game, and the Homecoming dance.

The activities were launched on Thursday, October 10, with a pep rally in Colin Gym; Don Caron's band provided the music for the sock hop that followed. Friday afternoon the traditional parade, complete with the Pep Band, cheerleaders, club and class floats, "sped" through downtown Wheaton.

Turnout

Tiger Turnout queen candidates Jill Ayers, Karen Wiesbrook, Faith Frykman, Jane Vincent, and Elaine Oury.

Before the Varsity football game Friday night, the floats were viewed by the spectators, and it was announced that the Juniors had won first place. Pre-game activities were completed as WGN's Eddie Hubbard crowned Karen Wiesbrook the 1963 Tiger Turnout Queen; members of her court were Jane Vincent, Jill Ayers, Elaine Oury, and Faith Frykman. Directed by Mr. Sweet, the W.C.H.S. marching band put on a fine half time presentation. The mighty Tigers then proceeded to trounce DeKalb in a one-sided game, 33 to 7.

The annual Tiger Turnout dance, held on Saturday evening and entitled "Once Around a Compass," was organized by the Junior class. The main event of the evening was the crowning of the Tiger Turnout King John Wright.

The Concert Band began this year's activities by performing at all the home football games, with the Tiger Turnout festivities as a highlight. In addition, the band was privileged to take part in the first Band Day held at the University of Illinois; traveling to Champaign by special train, they were one of the many bands from the state that performed at the halftime of the Illinois-Purdue football game.

During the second semester the band presented its formal concert. Many members took part in the state music contest, as well as in the Fox Valley Music Festival held in April. From the ranks of the Concert Band also come the Pep Band members, the drum major, the majorettes, the nucleus of the Varsity Show band, and the wind, brass, and percussion players in the orchestra.

The Intermediate Band, conducted by Mr. Sweet, consists of mainly freshmen and some sophomores. The primary function of this band is to give its members the preparation they need for participation in the Concert Band in later years.

For most of its activities the Intermediate Band joined with the Concert Band: first, in giving a performance at the last football game of the season and then in presenting programs at various times throughout the school year. The band made a solo appearance when it played before some of the advisory groups.

The Wheaton Community High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. James Carsten, made its first public appearance of the year at the annual pops concert presented in November. Selections from The Music Man by Meredith Willson and LeRoy Anderson's The Waltzing Cat were the featured numbers, with the group also playing music by Mozart and Tschaikowsky.

The orchestra was more active during the second semester, participating in the annual Fox Valley Music Festival and in the state music contest. To the latter event the orchestra sent seven soloists and six string ensembles. A few members of the organization also played in the Varsity Show. The year was consummated by a spring concert.

The W.C.H.S. Choir was very active this year. The annual Christmas Vespers were presented in the college's Edman Chapel in December; a highlight of this program was the initial performance of director Roland Gansman's work, "Psalm 67." In February the choir had an opportunity to sing in Orchestra Hall, where they appeared on the television program, the Sunday Evening Club. A spring concert was given in March, and members of the choir participated, with other high school choirs from the area, in the Fox Valley Music Festival, held in April. The Varsity Show at the end of the year marked the final activity of the group.

Sophomore Chorus

The Sophomore Chorus is a mixed singing group under the direction of Mr. Gansman. Its members meet during the seventh period of each day, and this chorus as well as the others furnishes the opportunity for good preparation and experience for underclassmen who later hope to enter the choir. The main event in which these sophomores participated this year was the annual spring concert.

"The Goose Hangs High"

The parents (Patti Lehner and Phil Wagner) and Camille Murdock (Jody Krulish) look on as Stella and Hugh (Cindy Baker and Jim Curtis) open packages.

Mr. Payne skeptically watches a play rehearsal.

"The Goose Hangs High" was presented at W.C.H.S. last fall. Written by Lewis Beach, the play was the story of the Ingals family and their problems—especially their struggle to pay for the children's educations. The three children, home for Christmas, didn't seem to appreciate their parents' sacrifices.

Mr. Payne directed the production in which Phil Wagner, as Bernard Ingals, had the lead role. Patti Lehner portrayed his wife Eunice, and their children were Hugh (Jim Curtis), Lois (Liz Duncan), and Stella (Cindy Baker). Other members of the cast were: Jean Beckman, Rich Rabb, Randy Koch, Pam Johnson, Pat Meyer, Jody Krulish, Diane Swenson, Ted Schaffnit, and Ken Parent.

Those involved in the backstage work were: Judy Henning, assistant director, Ken Parent, technical director, and crew managers Neil McCloud (lights), Bob Reinert (sound), Ann Lowry (make-up), Kathy Neat (costumes), and Maxine Sawnson (props).

One-Acts

The annual Thespian One-Act Play Festival took place this year February 28-29. All three plays were chosen and directed by members of the National Thespian Society, an honorary organization for those who participate in dramatic ctivities.

"Trifles," directed by Liz Duncan, was a mystery with a surprise ending; it was originally produced by Alfred Hitchcock. The cast was composed of Diane Swenson, Jane McCulley, John Squires, Randy Koch, and Chuck Berthold.

Libby Sholes directed "Helena's Husband," a comedy which provided a "behind-the-scenes" look at the causes of the Trojan War. Zelma Combs played Helen of Troy, with Judy Henning, Jody Huggins, Ted Schaffnit, Rich Raab, and Phil Wagner portraying the other characters.

"Sorry, Wrong Number," a well-known, suspenseful drama, was the play chosen by Phil Wagner. Patti Lehner was Mrs. Stevenson, a woman who overheard a wrong number---and then found that she was to be the victim. Other roles were filled by Kathy Near, Jim Marston, Steve McMillan, Donna Waldow, Sylvia Newitt, Kurt Parent, Ted Schaffnit, and Cindy Baker.

The production staff included faculty sponsor Mr. Payne, director of our all-school plays, and student managers. Jim Curtis was production manager; Neil McCloud, technical director of our all-school plays, and student managers. Jim Curtis was production manager; Neil McCloud, technical director; Jim Schaffnit, lighting manager; Ann Lowry, make-up manager; Bob Reinert, sound manager; and Ginny Wheaton, props manager.

Thespian Troupe 1022 at W.C.H.S. is the local chapter of the National Thespian Society, an honorary organization devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts in high schools. Members have on-stage or back-stage duties on the all-school plays, the student-directed one-act plays, and the Varsity Show. This spring they attended a performance of a play in Chicago.

This year the Thespians also conducted workshops for students interested in different facets of the theatre—acting, directing, costumes, make-up, set design, etc. Through these workshops, students had opportunities to learn more about play production, and they were encouraged to participate more actively in the future. Mr. Payne, director of the school's dramatic productions, sponsored the activities of the Thespians this year.

Modern Music Masters is an honorary society, under the leadership of Mr. Gansman, which seeks to promote the enjoyment and understanding of music.

To be eligible for membership in Tri-M, a student must first participate in a musical group, either a choir, a band, or orchestra. The instructors of these groups suggest names for membership. After those nominated have performed and taken a test on the club's constitution, the officers of the society vote. Finally, those that are selected are initiated at one of the musical concerts.

Latin Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Powell, is one of the largest organizations in our school. Meeting in the evenings, its members viewed a wide variety of programs this year, including two plays, "Jason and Medea" and the "Three Bears" presented in Latin. At a Halloween party the group played Scrabble in Latin. The club also printed a Latin newspaper, "The Tiber Times."

One of the club's money-making projects was selling Christmas fruit cakes, with the money raised going toward the Latin Banquet. This annual event was held on the Ides of March, and all members came dressed in appropriate Roman attire. Freshmen serving as slaves bowed to the wishes of upperclassmen who, in the proper Roman tradition, ate with their hands.

ROW ONE: C. Fors, S. Schuck, C. Brinkman, G. Erickson. ROW TWO: Miss Pommier, M. Severance, N. MacGregor, A. Bell, V. Stitt, J. Goodwin.

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America is to give students interested in teaching an opportunity to learn more about it and to get some practical experience. Members visit elementary schools where they observe teachers in action and lend some assistance in the classroom. The club also has a tutoring program at the high school. In this program interested club members, on a voluntary basis and without remuneration, tutor students during their free periods.

During the year F.T.A. has had speakers on such subjects as teaching machines, team teaching, visual aids, special education, teacher requirements, and scholarships; occasionally films on teaching were shown. Members had an opportunity to visit a teacher training institution to learn more about preparation for teaching.

The club also engaged in school projects. During Education Week the students prepared a special bulletin board built around the theme of education. This year some members served as student teachers during Education Week. They also offered clerical assistance to the Guidance Department when tests had to be administered to large groups of students.

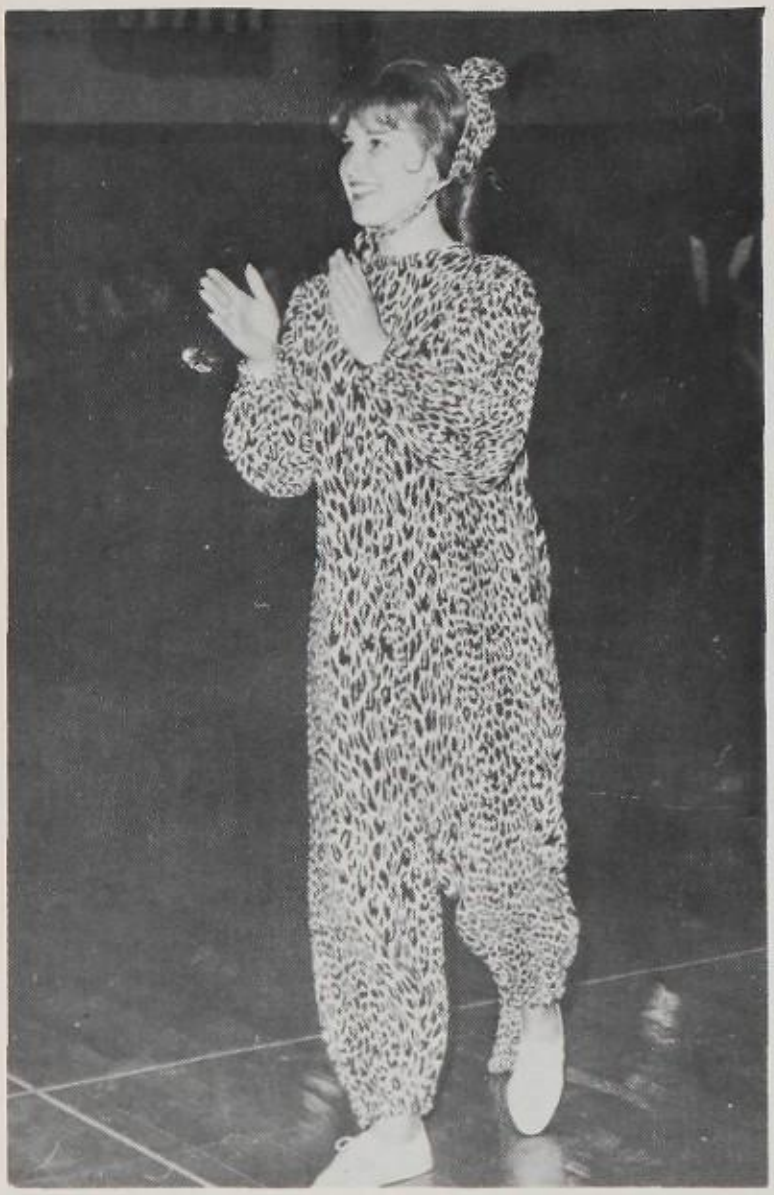
Pep Club



Pep Club's tiger (which bears a "minute" resemblance to a leopard) is Mary Jo Thiesen.

This year, as in the past, Pep Club, under the guidance of Mrs. Boettcher and Miss Waldvogel, has endeavored to promote school spirit and enthusiasm.

The group sponsored numerous activities, including many interesting pep-inducing posters, pictures of the athletes to adorn the stairways, class attendance contests at the basketball games, and buses to the games not held at our school. This year Pep Club also attempted to promote more interest in the lesser-known sports, such as gymnastics, wrestling, cross country, and indoor track.

Pep Week, January 13-17, included Ribbon Day, Turnabout Day, and "Beat Larkin" Day and was climaxed by a good basketball game against Elgin Larkin.

To highlight the school year, a banquet was given in the spring for all active Pep Club members.

For the first time, the paper was this year issued on a bi-monthly basis, and the printing of the papers was done entirely by the Industrial Arts Department on school presses.

Early in the school year two editors, Pam Gleason and Beth Lower, had the chance to attend a seminar sponsored by the Chicago Tribune at McCormick Place in Chicago. Here they met with editors of other high school newspapers in order to exchange ideas and to hear professional newsmen speak.

Wheaton's first literary magazine has been founded to provide a long-needed outlet for poetry, stories, and essays written by the students of this school. To the person who enjoys writing creatively, this magazine furnishes the necessary stimulation. The less enthusiastic person may see in the magazine how others have handled or mishandled articles, and thus may perfect his own writing. The name, The Vignetter, was chosen because the word means a writer of short, meaningful literary compositions.

This was the first year for a Forensic Team at Wheaton Community High School. The team, which is composed of sophomores and juniors, competes in ten areas of speech: verse reading, prose reading, extemporaneous speaking, radio speaking, humorous reading, original monologue, after-dinner speaking, dramatic reading, original oratory, and oratorical declamation.

The squad got off to an excellent start this year and set quite a precedent for other groups to follow. In its first meet against twenty-eight area schools, the team finished a surprising fifth. The rest of the year seemed to follow this trend, and many awards were won, including a third place in the district tournament held at Aurora West. Individual winners in this contest were Kathy Leonard. Steve McMillan, and Linda Dell, who also advanced to the sectional. Steve McMillan received special recognition in advancing to the state finals. The Forensic Team has started a fine tradition and intends to uphold this in the years to come.

Among those Forensic Team members not pictured are: Ginny Wheaton, Desley Manger, Kathy Creighton, Jo Ann Huggins, Patsy Luttrell, Sandy McKenzie, Greg Wilson, Carol Pendergraft, and Judy Crane.

Despite the ever-present and vague deadlines, which were never met, the 1964 WECOMI is here!! Many turbulent and hectic hours were spent in its preparation by the editors under the supervision of Mr. Wright.

The prime objective of the staff this year was to save money--no matter what the cost. In the cause of frugality, the summer supplement, of which we have 864 from last year, is no longer with us. An attempt was made to cram some of its contents into the WECOMI, but this met with little success.

Due to the fact that seventy-two underclass pictures were jammed on a page, and quotations were omitted from the senior pictures, there are four less pages in the entire book than last year (a savings thoughtfully passed on to the purchasers of this book). BUT there are more candids, sprinkled liberally throughout the volume. We further departed from precedent by including an opening section which gives an over-all picture of W.C.H.S.

At the beginning of the year, the editors (like all yearbook editors, past and future) had great hopes and aspirations for this volume. In the end . . . . . .

Tigers Place Third In New Conference

This year Wheaton entered a new conference, the Upstate Eight, and made a fine showing. Our team started the season by meeting its traditional rival, Glenbard West. The Tigers repeated last year's margin by fighting their way to a 27-13 victory over the Hill Toppers. John Wright showed his skill by running for three touchdowns and kicking two extra points; this, however, would not have been possible without a strong team effort.

The following week our team journeyed to Marinette, Wisconsin, where they met some very strong opposition. Fine ball running by our backs was not enough, as the Marinette Marines battled to a 19-13 victory. A week later our players opened their conference games, scoring a 21-18 win over a stubborn Elgin ball club.

October 4 found Wheaton returning to the Elgin field where it met Elgin Larkin. A fine run by Chip Kee helped give the Tigers their first touchdown; from then on, it was Wheaton all the way with a total of three touchdowns for our team as opposed to only one for Larkin.

Tiger Turnout was on October 11, and on that day the Tigers faced a tough opponent, the Barbs from DeKalb. However, DeKalb was soon put in its place, and the Tigers left the field with a 14-0 lead at half-time. The second half saw even better playing than the first, and sophomore Bob Groote's excellent running helped give Wheaton a 33-7 win.

The following week the team played Aurora West; although we won 20-12, we lost the services of one of our ends, Dave Jones, who suffered a dislocated shoulder. This victory left our team tied for first place with Aurora East. In the next game, the battle for first place, Wheaton pushed hard, but the Aurora East team was too strong, as the Tigers received their second defeat of the season, 20-0.

The loss put the Tigers in a tie for second place with their next opponent, Naperville. The game with Naperville proved to be very exciting; excellent running by John Wright gave Wheaton one touchdown, but the extra point was wide. Naperville countered with a touchdown and the extra point, which concluded the scoring for the game although Wheaton threatened on several occasions.

The last game of the year brought the Tigers home where they met powerful Glenbard East. Wheaton scored first on a pass from junior Mike Johnson to junior end Bob Balfour; John Wright kicked the extra point. Our second touchdown came when Chip Kee received a pass and ran the ball in for six points. In the final quarter, John Wright received a punt and ran back forty yards for the touchdown.

Although the whole team had an outstanding season, some received special recognition. John Wright, Steve Kerr and Dave Jones were elected to the all-conference team. Wright was also elected to the all-suburban team with Kerr and Jones receiving special mention. Wheaton should be proud of John Wright, for he was chosen along with thirty-two other boys as a member of the 1963 all-state "Dream Team."

The Class of 1966, playing under the direction of Coach Duhm and Coach Longacre, had an undefeated season. After last year's record of no defeats and no ties, the team kept battling and turned out the impressive result although there were two ties. Glenbard East provided the toughest competition of the year, as they tied our sophomores 0-0 and later in the season 6-6.

Our freshman football team had an unbeaten, untied record of seven wins and no defeats this year. Wheaton's Class of 1967 totaled 174 points during the season, as compared to their opponents' 27. Mr. Maris, one of the coaches, attributes the victories to a strong team effort, in which everyone did his part.

Although the team will be split next fall with the opening of the new high school, it is thought that neither team will be hurt greatly because of the size of the present team.

Wheaton's relatively inexperienced varsity cross country team finished fourth in the tough Upstate Eight Conference this year. Led by seniors Dennis Dugan, Dave Hillis, and George Dyke and juniors Bill Anderson and Bill Bangs, the runners won three of the season's seven dual meets and managed to pull out a fourth place in conference meet. Anderson, who placed fifth at the conference meet, finished first for Wheaton in all dual competition. The Tigers also placed thirteenth in a twenty-team field at the district meet. With seven returning lettermen and some promising sophomores in Rick Bailey and Jim Sandin, the prospects for next year are bright.

Junior Bill Boyle's expression reflects the exhilaration of cross country running.

Sophomore Cross-Country

Rick Bailey, sophomore, was undefeated this season, winning seven consecutive dual meets and also the conference meet.

The Wheaton varsity basketball team ended the season with an 11-13 over-all record. In its first year in the Upstate Eight Conference, the squad managed a sixth place with a record of seven wins and seven losses. The new conference proved to be fairly evenly balanced, as Wheaton, although in sixth place, finished only three games behind the league leaders.

Wheaton entered two tournaments during the Christmas holidays and brought back the consolation trophy from the Morris Tournament. In the first game of the regional, our team met a very determined Mooseheart squad that came from behind to defeat the Tigers in the final seconds, 60 to 59.

With five sophomores and two juniors on the tournament squad, Wheaton should be able to look forward to a very successful season next year.
